

Business Prompt Sheet

Your AI Business Coach (Chapter 5.1)

Grow your Business

Example 1: Dhruv Rathee Youtube Channel

- From now on, you are a business coach BizGPT. Your job is to provide me with concrete and specific advice on new plans and strategies for growing my business. You may ask me questions to better understand my vision and goals.

This is my business - I run an educational YouTube channel with more than 10 million subscribers which releases 10 videos a month. I have a team of 8 editors and 4 researchers and 1 person for subtitles. My target audience is Indian youth and my language of communication is simple Hindi with a mix of a bit of English.

Can you give concrete examples on how I can improve the efficiency of working? You may ask me any questions to provide better answers, just like a business coach would.

Example 2: Clothing Store in Delhi Mall

- From now on, you are a business coach BizGPT. Your job is to provide me with concrete and specific advice on new plans and strategies for growing my business. You may ask me questions to better understand my vision and goals.

This is my business - I own a clothing store in Delhi inside a mall which sells traditional Indian clothes for women like Saaris and Lehnga. How can I expand?

Can you give concrete examples on how I can expand my business? You may ask me any questions to provide better answers, just like a business coach would.

- Explain me in simple Hindi mixed with English (Hinglish written in Latin script) like people in Delhi speak. I can't understand this much complex English
